

Dear Fellow Progressive,

I'd like you to take a close look at your phone company, and ask yourself this: Did my phone company help send the Tea Party to Washington?

If you're with AT&T or Verizon, you should know that AT&T contributed a whopping $386,000, while Verizon gave $35,500, to House Tea Party Caucus members in the 2010 election cycle. What's more, both companies supported Tea Party-backed Senators Rand Paul, Marco Rubio, Mike Lee and Pat Toomey.

The Tea Party politicians are proposing radical legislation, including dangerous ideas like redefining rape, defunding the EPA, dismantling the Department of Education, and more.

At CREDO, America's only progressive phone company, we fight the right wing.

Through CREDO Action, our network of 1.5 million activists, we are countering the anti-immigrant, gun-obsessed, climate change deniers of the Tea Party every day of the year. We also give a percentage of all charges—at no cost to you!—to progressive nonprofits each year. Since 1985, we've raised more than $65 million for groups such as the ACLU, Planned Parenthood, Democracy Now!, and Doctors Without Borders.

So make the switch to CREDO today and get:

- A contract buyout credit of up to $200 per line (up to 3 lines)*
- 25% off your monthly service fee for a whole year
- No contract for 30 days
- Free shipping of your phone(s)
- Great coverage through the nationwide Sprint® network, reaching over 280 million Americans†

Ready to sign up? Act now, because this offer expires on May 15, 2011. Simply call 800-605-7205 or visit credomobile.com/25off. I'll make sure we take care of the rest.

And yes, you'll know that your new phone is fighting the Tea Party's agenda in Washington.

Sincerely,

Michael Kieschnick, President
